AUGUST IS ROTARY

MEMBERSHIP MONTH

THIS WEEK: Membership

We welcome guests of members to a meeting to promote the club and it's projects and activities. Andrew will provide a snapshot of what it means to be a member of Rotary.

THE BREAKFAST CLUB

Last Week: Fellowship at

Speed-dating gave us all a chance to catch up with someone we don't usually have time to talk to. We learned valuable lessons on how to store tomato sauce and also the connections others have with Rotary; how they joined and why and where.

Melissa C: From the District meeting: Melissa is working to refine the strategy around Facebook to provide effective communication to a range of audiences. A Rotary Tasmania page where the audience is mostly non-rotary with clearer content, styled to limit acronyms for e.g. Also to be a Tasmanian family of Rotary page to inform all members in the district of rotary events state-wide. There will also be a review of the district web page.

Club Debate – Sept 27th
"Women should not be playing AFL"

It's 80 years ago this August that a Carlton women's XVIII (and 19th woman) team took to the field, in a match involving Richmond before 10,000 onlookers at Princes Park. They raised over 10,000pounds! It was played on Aug 12th 1933

Heads and Tails winner: Tony

Mad Minute Biography

Fletcher told us of the mostly "highs" of his work in event planning and management. From live lions to mini budgets...it is all about the money.
