migrant resource centre
Discussion centred on the origin, needs and retention of migrants and refugees into the Tasmanian community.

The top 6 "mother countries" for immigrants are:
Netherlands, Germany, China, India, Philippines and Malaysia. There is an 11% diversity in the Tasmanian community, and looking around our breakfast meeting, it was calculated we were at more than 12%, so we are a diverse club although we may think that we have no new "international" members. Challenges to keep migrants in the state include employment opportunities, family links, climate and the need for a larger community of their ethnicity.
