Last Week: Kirsty Madden Peace and Conflict Scholar

Kirsty was the first Tasmanian awarded the Peace Scholarship. This was in 2014. She went to study for her masters degree in peace and conflict at SOAS (School of Oriental and Asian Studies) in London. She has worked in East Timor and studied the conflict in Myanmar, and soon returns to East Timor to work.

Conflict is an action to achieve gain for self-interest and it is always the everyday people who suffer.

A thought provoking talk about serious issues:
Justice v Stability
Morals v Pragmatism
Greed v Grievance
Applications are open for the Rotary Peace Fellowship in Bangkok for 3 months

Last Week:

Karen modelled a new T-shirt in navy with gold piping for our new look uniform.
Jill thanked Cecelia for her GWCTD event with the profit of $425
Gill knows a "crafty" woman who loves to knit and would welcome any amounts of 8 ply wool for her to create clothes for all ages to be donated to a charity of our choice.
